

The West Column

Well brethren, it has been a bit of a struggle getting the West Column out in time for the first meeting of the month of December. A mixture of too much content and too little time I'm afraid as it has been a very busy month. On checking my diary though, I think that there may be a little window of opportunity coming up at the end of the month for a couple of weeks largely free of meetings and I will look forward to the rest. I've said it before but I am often amazed how quickly the time seems to fly past. It seems like no time at all since I commenced my commission as Provincial Grand Master but amazingly, almost four years have passed.

I was reminded of this during the week when I received a letter from Grand Lodge advising me that they had noted that my commission would end on the 1st February 2018 and asking me if I wished to be considered for re-election to the office. While I have (and still am) enjoyed my term as Provincial Grand Master immensely, I think it is only appropriate that someone else takes over the reins with a fresh outlook and initiative and I have responded accordingly to Grand Secretary.

Over the coming week or so, each Lodge will therefore receive a letter from Grand Secretary, inviting the Lodge to nominate a suitable brother for consideration as Provincial Grand Master by Grand Lodge. While the closing date for nominations is August, I would urge all Lodges to give the matter careful consideration well before that date and make every attempt to respond to Grand Secretary by the end of April.

In the meantime, I will continue to give of my very best to carry out my duties as Provincial Grand Master during the next year and until my commission is terminated and I demit from office.

With that important message out of the way, I'm sure that most of you are turning your thoughts to Christmas and the New Year. November has been a very interesting month especially for our cousins across the "pond" where the US Presidential election has been taking place. I would not dream of making comment on the race to the White House or indeed on the outcome but I was interested in events at the end of the month.

Thanksgiving always takes place in America on the 4th Thursday in November and was perhaps first recognised in 1789 when George Washington instituted the celebration. However, it was in 1863 that Abraham Lincoln pronounced that it would be a national holiday of "thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens".

A day when the nation is to take stock of all of God's gifts, of food, comfort, safety and family and I'm sure that most Americans do just that. However, what now follows the day of thanksgiving is another special day – BLACK FRIDAY!

Black Friday is the day when the big stores have their very special sales (sadly the practice is creeping into this country in recent years. In the space of 24 hours human nature is quickly transformed from one of thanksgiving to one of pure greed with people fighting over themselves in order to grab a bargain. Human nature at its very worst I'm afraid.

To be honest, such changes in nature are not uncommon. How many go to Church on a Sunday morning and come out feeling kindness towards our fellow man but how long does it last?

We attend our Lodge meetings and shake the hands of brothers but does that good feeling last until the next meeting?

As we approach Christmas and the festive period, again we will feel that glow of kindness and goodwill towards our fellow man and woman but the trickiest part will be maintaining that goodwill through to January and on through the whole year. So perhaps this year forget about a new year's resolution to cut down on the drinks and cigarettes or to lose weight or get a bit fitter. Here is a resolution for us all to simply show a bit more compassion, understanding and tolerance and extend the spirit of Christmas through the whole year.

In the meantime, I would wish you and your loved ones a very happy and blessed Christmas.

Regards,
Jim

As a wee Christmas postscript, my daughter, currently in Dallas, Texas, send me a photograph taken in the menswear department of Macy's asking me if I would like the jacket (and matching tie) in the red or blue. Apparently reduced to a bargain half-price – now only $50! Sadly I feel only Brother David Stevenson of Lodge Firth of Clyde, Gourrock No. 626 could really do it justice!

Contributions to the West Column

I would as always thank those who have provided contributions to this month's edition and a reminder that photographs of events are also welcome but I have to reserve the right to limit their use as it can affect the email transmission speed. However, please continue to send photographs as I can always include them in later editions. Most importantly, it is assumed that any photographs sent to me have the permission of the subjects for publication. If sending articles with accompanying photographs, could I ask that these are not embedded into a word document but send separately as JPEG files. All contributions should be sent to Jim626Col@aol.com

I am aware that many Lodges have had new initiates or even existing members who may have email addresses but do not receive the West Column. I would be grateful if the Lodge Secretaries could mention the West Column in your respective Lodges and perhaps encourage those who do not yet receive it to drop me a note of their email address and I will add them to the distribution list. The Column goes all over the world but let's make sure that it reaches all possible addresses in the Renfrewshire and Inverclyde area as well! My thanks go to those who have forwarded on new contact details within the last month.

Views expressed by individuals within the West Column do not necessarily represent the views of Provincial Grand Lodge.

Advertising:

For some time, I've been thinking whether to offer to include adverts in the West Column although we have occasionally carried the odd Masonic related advert.

I am aware that there may be brethren within Lodges who can offer a range of services, painting, decorating, building, plumbing, car servicing etc. Equally, I have often heard it said that brethren would be happy to provide work to fellow brethren, not because they are looking for a reduced price but more because they feel that they can trust them. I am therefore happy to try and run a trial over the coming session to see if we can link the two to everyone's benefit.

At the moment there is no charge to include an advert in the Column but perhaps if taking advantage of the service, it could be mentioned that the advert had been seen in the Column, which would allow us to gauge the success or otherwise of the trial. If you would like to advertise your services, simply drop me a note of the advert and I will include it in the Column. Regrettably, I would have to stress that the West Column could not be responsible for any work carried out as a result of the advert!

I must say that there has been little response to the above note since its first publication in September's edition. If this is not a feature which is of interest to the brethren, I will review the matter in the new-year. I am a little surprised that there has been little take-up, especially by the tradesmen amongst the brethren. This is a chance to advertise your services and/or products free of charge to a readership of around 500 every month.

Byelaws and Notices of Motion:

Brethren, could I please urge you to ensure that any proposed changes to bye-laws be discussed with the Provincial Grand Secretary BEFORE compiling a Notice of Motion for submission to the Lodge. This will ensure that the Motion is in an acceptable format and avoid any delays caused by having to have the proposal reworded and resubmitted.

Renfrewshire 200 Club (RW200Club).

Application forms are also still available within each Lodge. If you have not already "signed up" I hope that you will give your earnest consideration to this excellent method of charity fund-raising which should at the same time, assist in boosting attendance figures throughout the Lodges. The monthly entry fee is £5.00. However, those wishing to participate are not limited to any number of "entries" and if anyone wishes to purchase two or more tickets they may do so. It is hoped that Lodges will also participate by purchasing tickets and perhaps this could be favourably considered by your General or Finance Committees.

Members may either pay cash (cheques should be made out to the Provincial Grand Lodge) or may take out a standing order arrangement. You can also take part on a monthly basis but to take part in the draw your contribution, whether by cash, cheque or standing order must be with the Provincial Grand Treasurer prior to the draw taking place.

Please remember that a minimum of 50% of the income will be going directly to charity. I have not as yet decided on a good cause for this project as I felt that we had to be assured that it would get "off the ground". It is probably that when the time comes to divide up the proceeds, it will be split between a national charity and a local charity or charities. I have a fairly open mind about a national charity and would welcome suggestions from Lodges or individuals. There are, of course, many worthy charities and many of them will resonate with many of you for personal reasons. Chest, Heart and Stroke Scotland, Breast Cancer, Cancer Research, Childline, Help for Heroes, the list is endless. If you have a suggestion, please email me at Jim626Col@aol.com

The draw for the month of September was made at the regular communication of Provincial Grand Lodge with the winner being Lodge Cumberland Kilwinning No. 217.

Test Fees:

Please be reminded that it is important that Test Fees are kept up to date. Most Lodges now offer the facility of paying by direct debit which is an excellent way of ensuring that you are always clear in your Lodge.

In particular, it is also important to make sure that if you are an affiliate member of another Lodge, you must be clear in ALL Lodges in which you are a member to ensure that you may continue to visit other Lodges. Brethren who are not up to date in all Lodges of which they are a member, have visiting rights withdrawn as well as the privileges which would normally be afforded to them in their Mother Lodges.

Provincial Ball.

It is confirmed that the 2017 Ball will be held on Saturday 27th May. Tickets are now on sale shortly and it is anticipated that there will be a very high demand so the advice is get your order in quickly!

One small point Brethren in that it was agreed prior to the very first Ball back in 2014, the event was for members of the Craft and their partners only.

Grand Lodge.

Festival of St. Andrew 2016.

Around 500 brethren from across the world gathered in Freemason's Hall to witness the installation of the Grand Master Mason, Brother Charles Iain Robert Wolrige Gordon of Esslemont being installed for the ninth successive year along with the elective office-bearers of Grand Lodge. In an excellent ceremony, Brother W Ramsay McGhee was again selected as Depute Grand Master while Brother Hugh Clelland was selected to be Substitute Grand Master. The principal guest was Most Worshipful Brother Cristoph Rosbach, Grand Master of the United Grand Lodges of Germany.

Following the installation ceremony, the brethren retired to the Edinburgh Corn Exchange where they enjoyed an excellent meal and were well entertained by the various speakers.

In addition to the Provincial Grand Master and the Past Substitute Grand Master Brother Alexander Galbraith, the Province was also represented by, Brother Allan T Glen, Master of Lodge Greenock Kilwinning No. XII, Brother Nicholas R R Stetz, Master of Lodge Firth of Clyde, Gourrock No. 626, Brother Malcolm A Sinclair, Master of Lodge Crawfurdsburn No. 1121, Brother Neil M Johnston, Master Mason of Lodge Firth of Clyde, Gourrock No. 626 and Brother James Strachan, Master Mason of Lodge Crawfurdsburn No. 1121. A very enjoyable time was had by all in attendance.

The "Chain Gang".
Not sure what the collective noun might be for a group of Provincial Grand Masters and not sure that I would like to open it up for suggestions.

The Most Worshipful Grand Master Mason, Brother Charles Iain Robert Wolrige Gordon of Esslemont along with Depute Grand Master, Brother W Ramsay McGhee and Substitute Grand Master, Brother Hugh Clelland.

Could be twins! You know who they are!

Wanted!

Does anyone recognise this man?

Last seen heading for the Province of Ayrshire and wanted in connection with assault of an innocent wee haggis!

If seen do not approach as he could be dangerous.

If found, please return to Brother Robert Little, Provincial Grand Master of Ayrshire.

Honour for the Province:

The day was made extra special when the Grand Master announced that he had granted honorary grand rank upon Brother John Williamson Black, Past Master of Lodge Doric Kilwinning No. 68. Brother Black has served the Province faithfully both in his capacity as Master of Lodge Doric Kilwinning No. 68 but also as an honorary member of Lodge Crawfordsburn No. 1121 and in his career within the ranks of Provincial Grand Lodge where he recently became a Past Provincial Grand Senior Warden.

It is most appropriate that Brother Black was made Honorary Grand Piper and he will be presented with his certificate at the Installation of Lodge Doric Kilwinning No. 68 on Friday 9th December.

2018 Celebrations to mark the signing of the Armistice on 11th November 1918.

In November 2018, it is intended to mark the centenary of the end of the First World War by holding a Service within Grand Lodge. There will be a short parade beforehand and it is likely, in view of the limitations in the capacity of Grand Lodge, that each Province will be invited to send a limited number of representatives. It is possible that this will be based on the size of each Province and might mean that the Province of Renfrewshire West will be invited to send only two or three representatives.

I have been asked to gauge the likely demand for tickets (no cost involved) and attending such an event is something that would be of interest to you, please let me know.

Remembrance Day Parades.

It is a matter of some pride that Freemasonry was represented at each of the War Memorials on Remembrance Sunday, with wreaths being laid on behalf of the various Lodges at Inverkip, Gourock, Greenock, Port Glasgow and Kilmacolm.

Masonic Etiquette.

Concern was recently expressed regarding a lowering of standards of Masonic etiquette particularly in relation to forms of address where a degree of familiarity is regarded as lowering the dignity of the ritual.

In fairness, we learn from our predecessors in this regard and in many cases such familiarity has been going on for so long that it has perhaps become the norm.

It might therefore be helpful to provide a copy of a portion of the late Brother George Draffen's excellent paper on Masonic etiquette part of which dealt with correct forms of address and which is reproduced below.

MASONIC ETIQUETTE AND SCOTTISH USAGE (Brother George Draffen of Newington 1966)

'BROTHER IS A TITLE'

In the usage of the Scottish Craft 'Brother' is neither a sentimental nor familiar form of address. It is a title – as much as Right Worshipful or Worshipful.

A man does not attend his Lodge in his capacity as a private individual; he is not John Frazer or Robert Anderson. He is there in his capacity as a Master Mason – a Brother. For this reason he should always be addressed in open Lodge as 'Brother Frazer' or 'Brother Anderson'.

It cannot be too strongly stressed that all Scottish Freemasons are Brothers – irrespective of their rank in the Craft. The Scottish Craft knows no such form of address as 'Right Worshipful Brother' or 'Worshipful Brother', etc. In the Scottish Craft the appellations 'Right Worshipful' and 'Worshipful' are appropriate only to the office, not the person.

When addressing the Master of a Lodge it is correct to address him as 'Right Worshipful Master' and to refer to him as 'Right Worshipful Master Brother Anderson' It is incorrect and not in accordance with Scottish Custom to address him as 'Right Worshipful Brother Anderson'. In the same way a Past Master is never, repeat never, addressed as 'Worshipful Brother John Brown'. He is Brother John Brown, Past Master and on a billet – again a Scottish term – his name would be written as 'Brother John Brown, P.M.'

In recent years a habit has grown for Brethren to address each other as 'Brother John' or 'Brother David' and, even worse, to address the Master or visiting Provincial or District Grand Office-bearers in this fashion.

Formality in our Lodges and Ceremonials is important as it underlines the solemnity and dignity of our proceedings and therefore a Brother should always be addressed by his surname or family name, e.g. 'Brother Brown'.

The appellation 'Right Worshipful, Very Worshipful, Worshipful etc' is a form of address when addressing or referring to a Brother of the appropriate rank in the Lodge or at Harmony. There is no such office in the Scottish Craft as 'Right Worshipful Master' or even 'Most Worshipful Grand Master Mason', the respective officer are 'Master' and 'Grand Master Mason'

When the Office-bearers are listed in a billet or other written material they should be in the form of:

Master	Brother John Brown
Senior Warden	Brother David White
Junior Warden	Brother William Anderson etc.

It should also be remembered that a Scottish Lodge does not have 'Officers' but 'Office-bearers'.

The full article on Masonic Etiquette and Scottish Usage by Brother Draffen can be found in the 1966 edition of the Grand Lodge of Scotland Year Book and is recommended reading for all brethren.

CHARITY NEWS

STAMP APPEAL.

Please remember that Brother Bill Crumlish of Lodge Firth of Clyde, Gourrock No. 626 is collecting used stamps in aid of Ardgowan Hospice so please don't throw them away. Put them in an envelope and hand them on to Bill or to any member of 626 who will be pleased to pass them on. This costs nothing, simply a moment of your time and can mean so much to a very worthwhile cause. I'm sure than we all know of someone who has benefited from the care received at Ardgowan Hospice over the years so please help!

Brother Crumlish has asked me to advise that if donating stamps it is very helpful if approximately 0.25" border is left around the stamp.

ANNIVERSARY LAPEL BADGES.

Lapel Badges for 25, 40, and 50 years service are available at a cost of £5.50 each. A special "gem" set badge for 60 years is also available at £10. All prices are excluding postage. For every badge sold, £2 will be donated to the Grand Lodge Benevolent Fund. All cheques should be made out to "David Stevenson"

Badges, may be purchased individually by qualified Brethren, or in bulk by Lodges who may wish to make presentations to deserving Brethren, for meritorious service. All enquiries and orders to treasurno12@aol.com
Please make cheques payable to "David Stevenson".

Anniversary Badges.

Brethren, Brother David Stevenson, who kindly took on the task of co-ordinating the supply of anniversary badges from Brother Henry Tibbles has asked me to include a brief request to the effect that he would appreciate if Lodges could ascertain what the demand is likely to be for supplies of such badges during the coming year. It would be helpful if Lodge secretaries could co-ordinate any likely requests for such badges and advise Brother David of demand. His email address appears at the advert for the badges.

In the October 2014 edition of the West Column, I published a 'Grumpy Old Masters' Badge, provided by Brother Brian Hopkins PM626. Brother David Stevenson, has advised me that following enquiries from a number of brethren, he has been able to source these at a cost of £5.50 each excluding postage. Brother David's details are provided above.

New Material.

Right Worshipful Master Brother George Carson advises for those with a Kindle Fire HD you can download for free: The Symbolism of Freemasonry by Albert G MacKey in the 1800's. and comments that it is a very interesting insight into the use of symbols and allegories and how they may have developed from ancient cultures into what we have in "modern" Freemasonry. A little bit heavy in parts but as a free download for the information and ideas it is excellent.

Lodge Websites.

Brethren, sadly my plea to Lodges to ensure that their websites are up to date appears to have fallen on deaf ears as many of the website contain information which is out of date. There is nothing more off-putting and I am of the opinion that if a Brother accesses such an out of date site, he is unlikely to return to it.

I would appeal to you to ensure that your material is up to date and if possible place a "Last Updated" post on it.

If you are not able to update your meetings in particular, I would suggest that it is better to delete this section and just have your website as a static basic information only site, with contact details.
