

The West Column

Just very occasionally, there is a story which catches my eye as I peruse the daily postings in Facebook and recently, the story which made me chuckle was about a teacher who started to write the 7 times table on her board. She started with  $7 \times 1 = 7$ .

However, then she wrote  $7 \times 2 = 18$  before going on to write the rest of the sums correctly. Behind her, she heard the class laughing so she turned to ask them what was so amusing. Well Miss you've written one of the sums wrongly, they said. At this she pointed out that she had done this deliberately simply to show how quick people were at pointing out errors in others, while failing to give credit for what was done correctly.

Yes we certainly are too quick to find fault. The story resonated with me for a number of reasons.

Firstly, when I compile and issue the West Column, I can guarantee that within a couple of hours someone will have pointed out to me that I have got something wrong (that's fine by the way as I am only human and will often get dates mixed up)! However, I rarely get any feedback saying well done on the other 32 pages of information which has hopefully proved to be useful.

Likewise, when it comes to playing the organ at meetings. Now I will be the first to admit that I am no Russ Conway (older brethren will remember) and I would give my right arm to be a concert pianist – OK that wouldn't work! However, I do my best. As a matter of interest, there are approximately 200 notes in a verse of "Abide with me". If I play two verses of three similar hymns at a meeting along with some incidental music, it probably means that I will play around 1,000 notes throughout the degree. However, if I get a note wrong, I can guarantee that it will be brought to my attention immediately even although I have perhaps played 999 notes correctly. "Wearing boxing gloves tonight then Jim"?

Yes you've got to be a bit thick skinned at times!

The point I am trying to make is that we are all too quick to point out faults in others. Sadly, it is not just confined to general life but to our Masonic life as well and we are all too well aware of the criticism often levelled at one Brother by another.

I believe this is particularly less than helpful when we hear of young brethren attempting floor-work at an early stage in their Masonic career being subjected to the tut-tutting of (usually) Past Masters who frankly should know better.

What better way to discourage a young Brother than by criticising his work. The fact is that the Brother concerned has volunteered to learn and deliver a piece of ritual and should be commended for his efforts rather than castigated because he required a prompt or mixed up some of the ritual.

How often do we hear of newly installed Masters or Wardens being criticised on their abilities without due credit being given to the fact that they have volunteered to take on the heavy responsibility of leading their Lodge.

What is particularly sad is that such criticism is often not made directly to the Brother concerned but is the subject of gossip on bowling greens, golf courses or at other meetings. It would be nice to think that if anyone had what they considered to be constructive criticism of another individual, they would have the courage to speak to them directly.

A further reason to exercise caution before rushing to criticise is that we may not be aware of trials and tribulations which may be giving them concerns in their private or business lives. Health issues, problems at work, fears for their jobs and so on may all cause them to be a little distracted.

Now there is nothing wrong with constructive criticism provided it is made in a kindly, generous and preferably private manner. It is also much more likely to be well-received. There can often be a fine line between public castigation and bullying and criticism levelled in such a manner is much more likely to simply cause resentment.

So Brethren, here is my challenge to you; the next time you have some critical thoughts of someone, or are tempted to make a negative comment, take a moment, pause and make a list of the positive things that they have done, perhaps of the courtesy and kindness they show to others or work that they do behind the scenes and just maybe you will find that the list of positives outweigh the negatives.

Regards,
Jim

Future of the West Column:

Brethren, I know that many will skip over parts of the Column without really reading the content which is why I have put the following comment in a more prominent position.

I have been compiling this on-line document for around 17 years but often I struggle to find newsworthy articles which ARE of interest to brethren. I know this from comments received. However, I am often left frustrated when I realise that events take place but there is no reporting of it for inclusion in the Column.

Over the summer recess, I learned that one very well-known and respected Brother was presented with a 60-year service certificate and yet no mention was made by the Lodge concerned. Another Lodge had what appeared to be a hugely successful outing for their senior members with lots of photographs appearing on Facebook but again no mention of it for inclusion in the West Column.

These are items of interest particularly for brethren who may not be able to attend their Lodges for whatever reason. Nearly everyone has a camera phone nowadays so surely it is not a very difficult task to take a photo and send it to me with a few accompanying words?

Two Lodges in the Province regularly don't even respond to my request for information which I cannot understand considering it's free advertising of their meetings (see later note on advertising of meetings). I would therefore be grateful if you could perhaps give this matter your consideration. While the main purpose of the West Column was originally (and still is) to inform brethren of forthcoming meetings, it is important that other news items are included. Articles can be submitted by anyone, it does not need to be the Lodge Secretary. I am often told that the West column is valued by many of the nearly 500 recipients.

However, at the moment and unless there is a greater interest in providing articles, I would intend to cease publication at the end of my Commission and allow the new Commission to determine whether they wish to continue with the publication or introduce new ways to communicate with brethren in the Province. There are now possibly more effective mediums for advertising meetings nowadays such as Twitter, Facebook etc. In the meantime, my thanks as always to the very few who are kind enough to submit information.

Contributions to the West Column

I would as always thank those who have provided contributions to this month's edition and a reminder that photographs of events are also welcome but I have to reserve the right to limit their use as it can affect the email transmission speed. However, please continue to send photographs as I can always include them in later editions. Most importantly, it is assumed that any photographs sent to me have the permission of the subjects for publication. If sending articles with accompanying photographs, could I ask that these are not embedded into a word document but send separately as JPEG files. All contributions should be sent to Jim626Col@aol.com

I am aware that many Lodges have had new initiates or even existing members who may have email addresses but do not receive the West Column. I would be grateful if the Lodge Secretaries could mention the West Column in your respective Lodges and perhaps encourage those who do not yet receive it to drop me a note of their email address and I will add them to the distribution list. The Column goes all over the world but let's make sure that it reaches all possible addresses in the Renfrewshire and Inverclyde area as well! My thanks go to those who have forwarded on new contact details within the last month.

Views expressed by individuals within the West Column do not necessarily represent the views of Provincial Grand Lodge.

Advertising of meetings:

The Constitution and Laws of the Grand Lodge of Scotland provide for three ways in which to advertise Lodge meetings.

1. By intimation at the previous Regular Meeting.
2. By advertisement in the local newspaper published at least 48 hours prior to the meeting.
3. By circular delivered or posted to every qualified member at least 5 days prior to the meeting.

The above are the three permissible methods of convening meetings. It is not necessary to use all three; in fact, one method may be used for all meetings. The Lodge bye-laws must make clear which method will be used for any particular meeting.

For many years, the Provincial Grand Lodge of Renfrewshire West has compiled and published a composite advert in the Greenock Telegraph newspaper which has resulted in a significant saving to all Lodges over the previous practice of advertising meetings individually. However, due to the reducing readership of the Greenock Telegraph, it would appear to be the case that Lodges no longer consider this method of advertising to represent good value for money. One Lodge has already withdrawn from the composite arrangement and a further two are in the process of changing their bye-laws to effect a change.

As a result, it was agreed at the most recent meeting of Provincial Grand Committee that Lodges would be informed that the practice of advertising using a composite advert in the Greenock Telegraph would be discontinued from the end of the 2017 – 2018 session. This allows Lodges to fully consider the matter, determine what method they will use to advertise their meetings and allow a period of time to make appropriate alterations to their bye-laws.

In the event that Lodges determine that they wish to discontinue advertising in the Greenock Telegraph, it is recommended that the bye-laws should be altered to simply use option 1 above. This does not preclude the use of other means of advertising meetings such as the West column, Facebook, Lodges websites etc.

It is further recommended that in the event that a Lodge wishes to alter its bye-laws to reflect this change, consideration is given to any other changes which might be made at the same time such as fees etc. Finally, it is strongly recommended that before a change to Lodge bye-laws is submitted to the Lodge as a Notice of Motion, a draft is submitted to Provincial Grand Secretary for approval.

Advertising of Services:

If any Brother wishes to advertise their professional services in the West Column, please let me know and I will be happy to include them if space permits.

Byelaws and Notices of Motion:

Brethren, could I please urge you to ensure that any proposed changes to bye-laws be discussed with the Provincial Grand Secretary BEFORE compiling a Notice of Motion for submission to the Lodge. This will ensure that the Motion is in an acceptable format and avoid any delays caused by having to have the proposal reworded and resubmitted.

Renfrewshire 200 Club (RW200Club).

Application forms are also still available within each Lodge. If you have not already "signed up" I hope that you will give your earnest consideration to this excellent method of charity fund-raising which should at the same time, assist in boosting attendance figures throughout the Lodges. The monthly entry fee is £5.00. However, those wishing to participate are not limited to any number of "entries" and if anyone wishes to purchase two or more tickets they may do so. It is hoped that Lodges will also participate by purchasing tickets and perhaps this could be favourably considered by your General or Finance Committees.

Members may either pay cash (cheques should be made out to the Provincial Grand Lodge) or may take out a standing order arrangement. You can also take part on a monthly basis but to take part in the draw your contribution, whether by cash, cheque or standing order must be with the Provincial Grand Treasurer prior to the draw taking place.

Please remember that a minimum of 50% of the income will be going directly to charity.

The fund has enabled Provincial Grand Lodge to make charitable donations to the recipients of the Province's Citizen of the Year Award for the last three years and as reported fully below, the sum of £10,000 was presented to REACH for Autism, Inverclyde at the Province's annual Summer Ball. This supplements donations already made to the Girl Guides and Hammy's project in Port Glasgow and a proposal will be made at the Regular Communication in October, to dispose of the remaining funds prior to the new Commission taking over on the 1st February 2018.

Removal of commemorative plaque at former Ravenscraig Hospital.

I posted this story on the Provincial Grand Lodge Facebook page but for those who do not use Facebook, I was asked by the Estates Manager of NHS Inverclyde, Mr Ross Campbell if I would like to be present when they attempted to remove the foundation stone of the former Ravenscraig Hospital which had been originally laid by the Right Honourable, Earl of Kellie and Mar, Most Worshipful Substitute Grand Master acting for Sir Michael Robert Shaw Stewart, the Most worshipful Grand Master Mason. By chance, it was exactly 141 years to the day that the stone had been laid.

Unfortunately, the precarious state of the building meant that it was not possible to remove the foundation stone which will have to wait until the rest of the building is demolished. However, it was possible to remove the memorial plaque which has been removed to Inverclyde Hospital, for safe keeping.

Test Fees:

Please be reminded that it is important that Test Fees are kept up to date. Most Lodges now offer the facility of paying by direct debit which is an excellent way of ensuring that you are always clear in your Lodge.

In particular, it is also important to make sure that if you are an affiliate member of another Lodge, you must be clear in ALL Lodges in which you are a member to ensure that you may continue to visit other Lodges. Brethren who are not up to date in all Lodges of which they are a member, have visiting rights withdrawn as well as the privileges which would normally be afforded to them in their Mother Lodges.

Provincial Ball.

I can also confirm that the Town Hall (and the ever popular Capitol Big Band) have been provisionally booked for next year so put a note in your diaries for Saturday 19th May 2018. This is a little earlier than previous years as we are aware that this year, the date clashed with the long holiday weekend.

Grand Lodge.

The next regular meeting of Grand Lodge will be on Thursday 26th October and it is hoped that an appointment will be confirmed at this meeting for our new Provincial Grand Master to take up his commission on the 1st February 2018.

Festival of St. Andrew.

The Festival of St. Andrew will take place this year on St. Andrew's Day, 30th November and letters will shortly be with Lodges inviting applications for tickets for the annual dinner at a cost of £65 (excluding wines). While it is a fairly substantial cost for the meal, it is a superb day, even if only experienced once.

As last year, I would encourage anyone wishing to go, to forward their application along with the remittance to Brother Tommy Trotter, Provincial Grand Lodge Treasurer who can compile one application on behalf of the Province. This allows everyone to be seated together and if there are sufficient numbers, we can perhaps organise transport again this year.

Commemoration of the Fallen 2018.

Just a reminder that arrangements are being made for a parade and Church Service to take place on Sunday the 18th November 2018, to mark the end of the First World War. This is likely to be a very popular event and again, if numbers are sufficient, it might be possible to organise transport. I will provide further details as soon as they are known.

Arrangements are still a work in progress at this time but it is likely that a parade will form up on the Esplanade at Edinburgh Castle before marching down to St Giles' Cathedral for a Service of Commemoration.

Poppy Scotland.

It is intended to present a cheque from the Provincial Grand Master's Charity Fund, on behalf of the Freemasons' of the Province to Poppy Scotland. Arrangements have been made for the Organiser from Poppy Scotland (Brother) Gordon Michie to receive a cheque on behalf of the Province on Thursday 19th October.

The presentation will take place at the Regular Meeting of Lodge Cumberland Kilwinning No. 217 when Brother Gordon Michie, Past Substitute Provincial Grand Master of Fife and Kinross will provide a short insight into the work of Poppy Scotland. I will be attending this meeting in my capacity as Provincial Grand Master and would welcome the support of any office-bearers of Provincial Grand Lodge on that evening. It is also hoped that as many of the Lodge Masters and brethren might also be present to welcome Brother Michie into the Province and to support the presentation of the cheque being made on their behalf.

As an added "attraction" on the evening, there will be a presentation of a 50-year service diploma to Brother Tom Adair, Depute Master of Lodge Cumberland Kilwinning No. 217 who is a very well-known Brother and regular attender at both his own Lodge and other Lodges in the Province and beyond.

Looking ahead to 2018 and the commemoration of the ending of the First World War.

As part of events to mark the ending of the First World War, the Masonic Homes Group in conjunction with the Widows Sons Masonic Motor Cycle Group, will be doing a fundraising tour of the 32 Provinces in 2018 and are schedule to visit this Province on Saturday 29th September. It will be a very short stop but it is likely that the Group will lay a wreath at the Cenotaph in Port Glasgow before heading off to their next stop in Dunbartonshire.

It would be appropriate if the Province could present them with a cheque on their visit and perhaps Lodges could consider making a donation to the funds of Poppy Scotland. This will be a matter for the new Commission to consider.

Last month I included a tribute by Brother Andrew McKenzie PM1121, to the late William Clark which I have reproduced again this month for reasons which will become clear.

A tribute to

*William Clark
Second Lieutenant,
5th Bn, Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders
Who died on Monday, 23rd April 1917. Age 27*

The recent Centenary Commemorations of the Battle of Arras have prompted me to gather together a few thoughts.

Around 1992 I had reason to visit an elderly lady, Miss May Clark, in Kempock House in Gourrock. She was well into her nineties but a preparatory telephone call the previous day had assured me that the former piano tutor had all her marbles and was indeed as sharp as a tack... and yes, she certainly was.

I had taken along a photograph for her to see that I knew would have been of interest to her. It was that picture from 1913 of the first office-bearers of the newly formed Masonic Lodge, Crawfurdsburn Greenock No 1121. Her father, John Clark, was the first Master and he is centred in the shot.

Miss Clark took the photograph from me but remained silent with no reaction. I pointed out her father dressed in his full regalia but her attention was already focussed on another younger man in the second row. 'That's William', she said quietly, 'My brother. He died in the war'. The silence returned as this ninety-something-year-old lady became a younger doting sister in her early twenties having just heard the news. A seventy-five-year-old tear came to her eye and a resigned smile came to her lips. She mentioned the impact of his death on her parents.

This was my introduction to William Clark, a man who remains to this day as my personal connection to the Great War. He is also a man with whom I seem to share so many similarities. We both grew up in the same street in the east end of Greenock, Bawhirley Rd, he at number 25 and I at 75. We both attended Hillend Primary School and both went on to the Greenock High School. We were both Secretary of Lodge Crawfurdsburn – William at its founding and myself exactly one hundred years later.

He was a talented young man. He was an assistant school master at Chapelton School in Port Glasgow and was a great student of art. It was generally thought by many that Art would eventually become his chosen profession. He was an inspirational character by all accounts.

I have read in his own handwriting how he heard the call of Lord Kitchener. I read also a letter from him dated 1915 saying how happy he was to be back at the lodge in which he modestly fails to mention that he had sustained injuries in fierce fighting at the Battle of Loos with the 6th Cameron Highlanders. He received his commission for gallantry in the field.

In early 1916 he joined the 5th Argyll & Sutherland Highlanders and was retained as an instructor at Ripon for almost a year.

Early in 1917 he returned to France and by April he was involved in the conflict around the city of Arras. He was killed on the 23rd of April of that year. A day that has been named as 'Black Monday' in the memoirs of others. Some official documents list his death as the 24th of April which suggests a cold interlude between death and the recovery of his body.

The Greenock Telegraph described him as a popular officer, winning by his frank lovable nature and his devotion the confidence and respect of both officers and men. His loss is deeply mourned, but he has died gloriously it states.

In 2001 I drove to France. Part Holiday, part unspoken pilgrimage. It was a cold, wet and windy March day when we visited that small cemetery on the Heninel to Croisilles Road. His grave was not difficult to find. Out of the three hundred or so plots, half are unidentified and eleven are German. I stood in front of the stone inscribed William Clark, aware that his final resting place would not have been initially a single plot but a long trench, and the tears came to my eyes. The futility and the waste. The unfulfilled talent of a generation. And for what?

Andrew S McKenzie PM

The following was provided by Brother Iain White PM XII which provides further narrative on the story.

"I did find it very interesting Drew and poignant and particularly as it struck a chord with me and my No XII researches. I was aware from you about Bro Clark and also 'met him' in my recent researches into the Crawfurdsburn minutes for the lecture I gave at 1121 on The Curious Relationship between No XII and Lodge Crawfurdsburn in the Early Days. I am presently doing some Great War research as connected with No XII. I have attached a 'cutting' from the Greenock Telegraph of 26th June 1917. Therein you will see that it is announced that No XII's Bro Captain Peter R Jacobs (later to be RWM of No XII and RWPGM Secretary and Depute) of the Northumberland Fusiliers had been awarded the Military Cross - and - that Bro Second-Lieutenant William Clark had lost his life. Both there together and their photographs too. Bro Jacobs went on to make a significant contribution to freemasonry and also to the community being a local solicitor and Provost of Gourrock between 1953 and 56. Tragically all of Bro Clark's significant promise was left unfulfilled.

Lest we forget "!

Lodge Crawfurdsburn No. 1121

Tuesday 10th – Annual General Meeting

Tuesday 24th – Masonic talk delivered by Brother John S Miller, Immediate Past Provincial Grand Master of Renfrewshire East and Past Master of Lodge Thistle and Crown No. 1167.

Sponsored Walk.

On Saturday the 3rd June 2017, RWM Bro Malcolm A Sinclair, WJW Bro John Laird, WJW Bro Iain D Hair & Secretary Bro Donald J McRae took on the challenge of walking round all the Masonic Lodges in the Province of Renfrewshire West, starting at Lodge Sir Michael 989 in Kilmacolm and finishing at the 175 Masonic Club in Kelly Street.

After visiting Lodge Firth of Clyde 626, the most westerly Lodge in the Province, the four brethren called in at the Royal West of Scotland Amateur Boat Club on the Esplanade, Greenock to briefly take part in the 90th birthday celebrations of one of their Lodge's Past Masters, namely George (Kit) Carson.

After this stop, the brethren finished their walk by returning to the home of their Mother Lodge at the 175 Masonic Club.

The final sum raised was £1,277 and the Lodge has passed this amount to the British Heart Foundation. The Lodge would like to thank everybody who supported them in any way in the success of the event.

Picture of the brethren outside all the Lodge premises can be found at the following web site:
<http://www.lodgecrawfurdsburn.org.uk/rwm-s-sponsored-walk/>
Ideas for that special Christmas gift!

Still on the subject of charity, Brother John Paton PM1121 has a new hobby, making pens. Selling for between £10 and £15, the pens are made from a variety of materials and judging by the samples I saw will make an excellent gift. £2.00 from every sale goes to good causes.

Perhaps even an ideal gift for that superb team of Installing Masters?

Perfect stocking fillers for that special lady in your life?

CHARITY NEWS

STAMP APPEAL.

Please remember that Brother Bill Crumlsh of Lodge Firth of Clyde, Gourrock No. 626 is collecting used stamps in aid of Ardgowan Hospice so please don't throw them away. Put them in an envelope and hand them on to Bill or to any member of 626 who will be pleased to pass them on. This costs nothing, simply a moment of your time and can mean so much to a very worthwhile cause. I'm sure than we all know of someone who has benefited from the care received at Ardgowan Hospice over the years so please help!

Brother Crumlsh has asked me to advise that if donating stamps it is very helpful if approximately 0.25" border is left around the stamp.

ANNIVERSARY LAPEL BADGES.

Lapel Badges for 25, 40, and 50 years service are available at a cost of £5.50 each. A special "gem" set badge for 60 years is also available at £10. All prices are excluding postage. For every badge sold, £2 will be donated to the Grand Lodge Benevolent Fund. All cheques should be made out to "David Stevenson"

Badges, may be purchased individually by qualified Brethren, or in bulk by Lodges who may wish to make presentations to deserving Brethren, for meritorious service. All enquiries and orders to treasurno12@aol.com
Please make cheques payable to "David Stevenson".

Anniversary Badges.

Brethren, Brother David Stevenson, who kindly took on the task of co-ordinating the supply of anniversary badges from Brother Henry Tibbles has asked me to include a brief request to the effect that he would appreciate if Lodges could ascertain what the demand is likely to be for supplies of such badges during the coming year. It would be helpful if Lodge secretaries could co-ordinate any likely requests for such badges and advise Brother David of demand. His email address appears at the advert for the badges.

In the October 2014 edition of the West Column, I published a 'Grumpy Old Masters ' Badge, provided by Brother Brian Hopkins PM626. Brother David Stevenson, has advised me that following enquiries from a number of brethren, he has been able to source these at a cost of £5.50 each excluding postage. Brother David's details are provided above.

Brother George Carson advises for those with a Kindle Fire HD you can download for free: The Symbolism of Freemasonry by Albert G MacKey in the 1800's. and comments that it is a very interesting insight into the use of symbols and allegories and how they may have developed from ancient cultures into what we have in "modern" Freemasonry. A little bit heavy in parts but as a free download for the information and ideas it is excellent.

Lodge Websites.

Brethren, sadly my plea to Lodges to ensure that their websites are up to date appears to have fallen on deaf ears as many of the website contain information which is out of date. There is nothing more off-putting and I am of the opinion that if a Brother accesses such an out of date site, he is unlikely to return to it.

I would appeal to you to ensure that your material is up to date and if possible place a "Last Updated" post on it.

If you are not able to update your meetings in particular, I would suggest that it is better to delete this section and just have your website as a static basic information only site, with contact details.
