Meeting on 18th January

It has not been very often that visiting Lodges have been asked to work in No XII. In fact, close examination of the Lodge minute books shows that this has happened on only thirteen occasions. The fourteenth will be on Tuesday 18th January, when RWM Bro Carl Hempsey brings a deputation from Lodge Crawfurdsburn Greenock

100 years young!

Bro Dennis Evans reached his 100th birthday on 3rd January 2011. On 4th January, we were delighted to be able to join a celebration morning being held by the Ardgowan Club and Past Master Iain White and RW Provincial Grand Master Bro Jimmy Miller said a few appropriate words and presented Dennis with a letter of congratulations from No XII, a letter from Grand Secretary, a card from the Grand Master Mason and a 60 Year Jubilee Certificate. Dennis joined the craft in 1943 and affiliated to No XII in 1990. Bros Miller, Evans and White are in the photo (above).

No 1121 to do an exemplification of the Entered Apprentice Degree. This will be the fourth time Lodge Crawfurdsburn has worked in No XII. The previous occasions were in 1916, 1934 and about ten years ago. Lodge Crawfurdsburn has worked most often of visiting Lodges to No XII. Over the years, there have been significant links and connections between the two Lodges. Recently we heard of the generosity of Past Master RL Scott to the Crawfurdsburn building fund when Bro Drew McKenzie of Lodge Crawfurdsburn gave us the paper on Scott. Brethren of 1121 have presented various artefacts to No XII over the years and Bro Iain White is an Honorary Member of Lodge Crawfurdsburn.

Snow go!

Our Business Meeting of 7th December 2010 was severely curtailed because of the heavy snowfall. Nine hardy souls braved the elements to open and close the lodge. They were Jim Adams, Alan Beck, Crawford Kirkpatrick, Alex Galbraith, Willie Lothian, Ken MacDougall, Eddie McGill, Kenny Morrison and Iain White.
