Master's Musings 10

Since his Installation our Master, Bro. James P Livingstone (left), has given us a new look to the front page of Twelve Talk. Jim has again given us his thoughts for the opening article. He does so for the very last time.

That's all folks!

Well brethren, that has been a quick year! It seems like only yesterday that I was thinking about the duties that I had to perform as Master of “Number XII” and now I am preparing to hand over the reins to Brother Robert.

I have made no secret of the fact that my ageing brain has found it a little difficult in setting aside the ritual of my Mother Lodge for the last 47 years and getting the sometimes small, but often significant, differences correct on the night. I sincerely hope that you have not been disappointed with my efforts. I simply hope that they have met with your approval and where they have not, you will afford me a little bit of slack.

Over the months, it has been my pleasure to represent the Lodge at the various Lodges in the Province and beyond and even had the honour of having Honorary Membership bestowed upon me by our close friends at Lodge Renfrew County Kilwinning No. 370 following their Installation last December. The year has provided some very happy memories and I hope that you have been satisfied with the manner in which I have attempted to preside over the Lodge.

When I affiliated to the Lodge around 16 years ago, it was to try to give the Lodge a bit of support as there was no secret in the fact that the Lodge was going through a dip in its fortunes. However, I certainly had no thoughts or ambitions to take the chair as Master so I felt very privileged when I was approached by the Past Masters to accept the gavel for the last twelve months.

I would simply thank all of the brethren for putting up with me and allowing me to be Master of this wonderful old Lodge.

I would extend my best wishes to Brother Robert and his team for the next twelve months and hope that your tenure of office is as satisfying and fulfilling as it has been for me. Fly the "Number XII" flag as often as your personal circumstances will allow and keep the Lodge at the forefront in the Province.

With best wishes to all.

Jim

I am sure that all No. XII brethren would wish to join me in thanking Bro. Jim for his hard work and conscientiousness during his year in the Chair. He has been a fine Master for the Lodge and has led us with devotion to the Office, to the Lodge and to the Craft. As he demits, we extend every good wish for the future and trust that he will look back on his year as a job well done.

Our Previous Meeting Tuesday 5th November 2024 Act of Remembrance and Entering

There was a fine turn out and our Master invited the following RW Masters to join him in the East Bro Gilbert Hill, RWM of Lodge Doric Kilwinning No 68, Bro Alistair Lindsay, RWM of Lodge Greenock St John's No 175, Bro Jefferson Taulbut, RWM of Lodge Cumberland Kilwinning No 217, Bro Alasdair Keith, RWM of Lodge Sir Michael No 989 and Bro Hugh Docherty, RWM of Lodge Crawfordsburn Greenock No 1121.

A moving, and sincere, Act of Remembrance was conducted by Bro. Brian McFadyen IPM. The lament was played on the Great Highland Bagpipe by Bro. Iain White PM. The names of the following brethren, lost in the Great War and named on the Lodge War Memorial Altar, were read out:

Private Archibald Lindsay Barr 2nd Battalion Scots Guards
Engine Room Artificer. George William Campbell Royal Naval Reserve
Lieutenant James Hannah Royal Garrison Artillery
Pioneer Henry Hay Royal Engineers
1st Engineer Arthur Johnston Mercantile Marine
Private John Duncan Macfarlane 2nd Battalion Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders
Engineer Sub Lieutenant David Rankin Fleming MacKail Royal Navy
Lance Corporal Alexander Niven Russell 6th Battalion Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders
2nd Lieutenant Joseph Henry Sanders 10th Battalion Cameronians (Scottish Rifles)
Serjeant James Ritchie Smith 1st/5th Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders

Lest we forget

These brethren are always remembered in their Mother Lodge.

After the Act of Remembrance, we had an Entering and the degree team was Prayer and Obligation Bro. James P. Livingstone RWM Secrets Bob Crossan PM Apron Robert Marshall WSW Northeast Corner Cameron White IG Working Tools Jordan Kincaid Charge Ken MacDougall PM.

RWPGM Bro. John W. Black was in attendance to welcome Bro. Julien James Andre Allee into No. XII, the Province of Renfrewshire West and the Craft.

Local Masons Remember Sunday 10th November 2024 Service at the Greenock Cenotaph, Well Park

The solemn occasion was marked by hundreds of Inverclyde citizens who marched, gathered at the Well Park and remembered those who served and those who 'gave their tomorrows for our today' in the two World Wars and other conflicts. We were blessed with a decent day weather wise. No XII was well represented with Bros. Jim Livingstone, Iain White PM, Hector Macphail PM, Alan Beck PM, Brian McFadyen IPM, Paul Branchfield WSW, Cameron White IG, Jim McGregor Snr and Eddie McGill all in attendance. There might well have been others that I couldn't see in the crowds.

A notable absentee was Bro. James Lever PM of Lodge Montgomerie Kilwinning No. 624 and an Honorary Member of No. XII, who, in the past, was an ever present wearing his General Service Medal from his service in Cyprus. Advancing years, and ill health, precluded Jim's attendance.

Also missing, owing to his recent knee surgery and heart attack, was another ever present Bro. Bob Bain PM. Of course, Bob is a veteran too, having served in the Corps of the Royal Engineers. We send our thoughts to both of these stalwarts.

Those of us who marched from Shaw Place alongside the Scout Pipe Band were grateful for the dry weather as were those waiting in the park. The stillness in the park contributed to the solemnity of the Ceremony, one which many of us know well from attendance over many years. Bro. James P. Livingstone RWM laid a wreath on behalf of No. XII, alongside the Masters of Lodge

Greenock St. John's No. 175 and Lodge Crawfurdsburn Greenock No. 1121, Bros. Alistair Lindsay and Hugh Docherty (right). Of course, Bro. Hugh served in the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders.

The Masters went together to the memorial, and in the stillness of a perfect autumn morning, laid the wreaths, bowed and returned. We all had our own thoughts at that time, I am sure. My own were of my own family and my forebears who served in the two World Wars; 12 in total and in 2 cases paid the supreme sacrifice. All of the men were masons. Lest we forget...

Armistice Day 2024
Monday 11th November
Bro. Lieutenant James Hannah

Armistice Day is a time to pause and reflect on the sacrifices made by countless individuals during times of war. It's a day steeped in remembrance, gratitude, and solemn respect. This year, I chose to honour Bro. James Hannah, a brother of No. XII whose courage and service exemplify the values we commemorate. Visiting his grave was not only a personal pilgrimage but also a moment to connect with history and pay tribute to his legacy. James Hannah was a Lieutenant in the Royal Garrison Artillery during World War I.

This Armistice Day, the weather was crisp and dry, with a gentle stillness in the air—a perfect day for reflection. I arrived at the quiet cemetery, the serenity underscoring the weight of the occasion. At exactly 11:00 am, I stood by James Hannah’s grave in Greenock Cemetery, observing the two-minute silence. In that moment, the world seemed to pause, as if to honour the bravery and sacrifice of those like him.

Afterward, I gently placed a poppy on his grave—a small gesture of gratitude for his immense sacrifice. The simplicity of the act felt profound, connecting me to generations past who have done the same. Armistice Day is more than a date on the calendar—it’s a reminder of the cost of freedom and the courage of those who defended it. Visiting the grave of someone like James Hannah is a tangible way to keep their stories alive and ensure their sacrifices are never forgotten.

As I left the cemetery, I felt a deep sense of gratitude and humility. James Hannah’s story is one of many, yet it serves as a powerful reminder of the strength of the human spirit. On this Armistice Day, I not only remembered his sacrifice but also renewed my commitment to ensuring that such bravery is never forgotten.

If you have the opportunity, I encourage you to visit a war grave. You could start with our brother, James Hannah. These acts, however small, are profound ways to honour those who gave everything for us.

Our Next Meeting Tuesday 19th November 2024 Annual Installation Master – elect Bro. Robert Marshall

Robert Marshall was initiated into Lodge Greenock Kilwinning No. XII on the 4th of November 2014 and since that time, he has filled a variety of offices, starting at Director of Music, then into progressive office at Inner Guard, working up through each office until most recently Worshipful Senior Warden. The Jack and Alistair Glenny Memorial Lecture
The 1st/5th Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders In Gallipoli
Tuesday 7th January 2025

The 5th Argylls was the local Territorial Battalion of the Argylls. It was based in the Drill Hall that used to stand between Finnart Street and Newton Street behind the old Greenock Academy building. When the Great War came, its members were called up to serve King Country and Empire. Many more volunteered.

The battalion was sent to Gallipoli in 1915 and took part in the Battle of Achi Baba on 12th July. Over 100 officers and men were lost in the charge on the Turkish trenches.

The lecture will be delivered by local historian and Gallipoli expert Alan Cumming. His presentation will be followed by a complementary one from Bro Iain White PM which will focus on local freemasons, from No. XII and Lodge Greenock St. John's No. 175, who served with the 1st/5th in Gallipoli including Bros. Duncan C Kerr MC, James Reid Kerr and Robert Alan Clapperton-Stewart.

It is planned that the Lodge will open and close and then the Lecture will be open to members of the public. Relevant local societies and individuals will be invited. We hope for a decent turnout to cement our involvement in the local community.

Next year, 2025, will mark the 110th anniversary of the Argylls' Charge at Achi Baba.

Earlier in the month I was an Installing Master at Lodge The Prince's and had the great privilege and honour of placing Bro. Eddie Meek in the Chair of King Solomon. The other Installing masters were Bros. Alan D. Beck and Alistair Hughes. Alan and I are both affiliate members of Lodge The Prince's and Alan is indeed a Past Master of that Lodge as well as No. XII. Alistair is a Past Master of Lodge Mossbank No. 1329 and an Honorary Member of The Prince's. We had a most enjoyable evening and over 50 stayed back for a most appetising dinner.

The Provincial Grand Lodge of Glasgow Deputation was headed by WPGM Depute Bro. Robert Shaw. Bro. Bobby is himself a Past Master of The Prince's and also of The Bridgeton and Glasgow Shamrock and Thistle Lodge No. 275.

Bro. Alex. Johnson in The Land of Cakes

Around this time last year, our WSW Bro Alex. Johnson was appointed Head Teacher at Earlston High School in the Scottish Borders and, as a consequence, had to demit office. He still keeps in touch and we hope that he has the opportunity to enjoy Freemasonry in his new locale. In that light, he was in Eyemouth recently eating a fish supper in the pouring rain in his car in Eyemouth and spied the plaque (below) to Robert Burns on the wall of the local Masonic Temple.

The Lodge in Eyemouth is a very ancient one called St. Ebbe No. 50. Founded in 1757 it is just 29 years younger than No. XII. The St. Ebbe in the Lodge name was the daughter of Aethelfrith, king of Northumbria, and sister of the Northumbrian kings, Oswald and Oswy. Her father was killed in battle in 617, and she and her brothers lived in exile. She became a nun through St Finan of Lindisfarne and founded a religious house at Ebchester on the Derwent. The neighbouring promontory, St Abb's Head, is named after her. She became Abbess of Coldingham in Berwickshire and died in 683.

Burns was on a tour with his friend, Robert Ainslie, when they happened into Eyemouth. They were admitted as Companions to the Land of Cakes Royal Arch Chapter no. 15 on 19th May 1787. Land of Cakes in the Chapter name refers to Scotland sometimes being referred to as the "land of cakes" due to its historical tradition of producing a wide variety of cakes and baked goods. Our country has a rich culinary heritage, with many traditional recipes for cakes and desserts that have been passed down through generations. Additionally, Scotland is known for its high-quality ingredients such as butter, flour, and sugar, which contribute to the delicious and diverse range of cakes produced there.

Many thanks to Bro. Alex. For the photo. I hope he enjoyed the fish supper!!

Diamond Jubilee Certificate Presentation
Bro. Allan Hamilton – Lodge The Gael No. 609
Thursday 14th November 2024

Bro. Iain White is an Honorary member of Lodge The Gael No. 609 in Glasgow; so too is Past Master Bro. Alan D. Beck. The Gael Past Masters Donnie Finlayson, Keith A. Bowes and Bill Bryce are Honorary Members of No. XII.

On Thursday past, Bro Iain was at the Regular Meeting at Lodge The Gael and witnessed a rare event as well as a fine Raising. The rare event was the presentation of a 60 Year Membership Jubilee Diploma to The Gael member Bro. Allan Hamilton. At 82 years old, Allan's life story is one of dedication, resilience, and passion. His roles as an engineer, policeman, and piper exemplify the diverse talents and unwavering commitment that define the spirit of our lodge.

As an engineer, Allan contributed to building the infrastructure that supports our modern lives—a career marked by precision and perseverance. His time as a policeman speaks to his courage and commitment to safeguarding the community. And as a piper, Allan has become a cultural ambassador, keeping the spirit of Scottish traditions alive with every note he plays and his work with the Pipers Persuasion website where he records and films the great and good of the piping scene and posts the programmes on YouTube.

During the Jubilee celebration, Allan was awarded a special certificate of recognition, honouring his contributions to both the Lodge the Gael and the wider community. Surrounded by friends and fellow lodge members, Allan's humility and gratitude were evident, even as the hall erupted in applause. It was a moment to not only celebrate Allan's achievements but also to remind us all of the importance of service, tradition, and community—values Allan exemplifies in every aspect of his life.

Allan Hamilton is more than just a member of the Lodge of the Gael; he is a symbol of what it means to live with purpose and pride within the Craft and beyond it. His story inspires all of us to contribute to something greater than ourselves and to embrace the values that unite us.

Bro. Allan's Certificate was presented, after a sincere and memorable speech of commendation by former 'polis' colleague and Depute Provincial Grand Master of Glasgow, Bobby Shaw.

Children in Poverty Inverclyde and Ardgowan Hospice

In every community, there are individuals and organizations quietly working to make a difference. Among them, Masonic Lodges stand out as a symbol of generosity and service, with members dedicated to uplifting those in need.

Recently, No. XII and the Provincial Grand Lodge of Renfrewshire West demonstrated this commitment through fundraising efforts and gifts that have had a profound impact on our community. PGLRW donated £2000 to Children in Poverty Inverclyde and No. XII £1000. No XII also donated £1000 to Ardgowan Hospice and £500 to Tommy’s pregnancy and baby loss charity (see Greenock Telegraph article on next page)..

Charitable giving isn’t just about financial contributions—it’s about strengthening the bonds within our community. When we support local charities, we invest in the people and causes closest to home. From helping families put food on the table to supporting education and health programs, these efforts create ripples of positivity that benefit us all.

We understand this well. Rooted in our Masonic values of fellowship and philanthropy, we work to ensure that our contributions make a tangible difference.

Pat Burke CIPI with Jim Livingstone RWM

This year, Lodges organized several events to raise funds for local causes. One standout effort for No. XII was, again, the Charity Burns Supper. The event not only raised significant funds but also brought brethren and friends together in a shared spirit of giving.

Another highlight is the Lodge’s continuing partnership with Children in Poverty Inverclyde. The funds will have a profound positive impact on many local families that will receive essential support in the run up to the holiday season.

Supporting local charities doesn’t require grand gestures—it starts with small, meaningful actions. You can attend our Burns Supper in 2025 and contribute a few pounds to the raffles. That will add up, across those attending to a significant amount. If you cannot attend on the evening why not give a small donation?

It is worth remembering that we are not just helping others; we’re building a stronger, more connected community with Freemasonry at its heart in a pivotal role. This sentiment captures the essence of what local charity efforts are all about. When individuals come together to support a cause, the impact is far greater than what any one person could achieve alone.

Together, in the Craft, we can continue to uplift our neighbours, strengthen our communities, and create a legacy of giving that inspires future generations.
